WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair tonight and Tuesday; fresh east to south winds.

DAY OF ATONEMENT.—The Jewish Synagogue on Washington street was crowded last night, all the Israelites of the city being present as well as some members of other churches. The services were in connection with the Day of Atonement, the most important event of the Hebrew calendar. Rev. Jonah Wise, of Cincinnati, conducted the services and delivered a practical, interesting and earnest sermon which was listened to attentively by all present. The Day of Atonement, Yom Kippur, or Yom Kippurim, as the word is more accurately spelled, was instituted subsequently to the great Jewish festival which has come down from the period of the Exodus. The occasion is limited to one day and was appointed for a time after the autumn harvest and before the celebration of the Feast of Booths or Tabernacles, which began on the 15th day of the seventh month. This was a time when the masses of the people were done with their arduous farm labor and could spare the time for the long trip to the city of Jerusalem and the stay through the season of prayers, penitence and thanksgiving. Both in Leviticus xxiii: 27, 28, and in Numbers xxix: the first day of the seventh month, Tishri, is ordained as a Sabbath. This is the Yom Kippurim, the Memorial Day of the Jewish calendar, and the great festival in the Hebrew Church instituted at the same time as the Yom Kippur, or Yom Kippurim. The tenth day of the seventh month, Tishri, which corresponds in the Hebrew calendar to September, was set apart as Yom Kippurim, the great Day of Atonement. The ten days just past, beginning with Rosh Hashanah and ending with the close of the Yom Kippurim, have been observed among orthodox Jews as a season of repentance and good works, called the Ten Days of Penitence. Today, the Day of Atonement, is a day of fasting, prayer and spiritual purification, and as such will be observed by Hebrews until sunset tonight. The day is observed in accordance with the command found in Leviticus: xvi: 29: "And this shall be unto you a statute forever; in the seventh month, on the tenth of the month, ye shall fast and do no work at all, neither the native or the stranger that sojourneth among you, for on that day ye shall be atoned for to purify you; from all your sins before the Eternal shall ye be purified. A Sabbath of Sabbaths, this day shall be unto you and ye shall fast; this is an ordinance forever."

YESTERDAY was an ideal fall Sunday, the skies being clear and the temperature mild. Many people availed themselves of the pleasant conditions to take strolls beyond the city's limits. Numbers from Washington were here during the day. The services at the various churches were well attended, numbers who had been out of the city during the summer having returned. The morning services at Christ Church were conducted by Rev. S. A. Wallis, of the Episcopal Theological Seminary. Rev. D. J. Santmyer occupied the pulpit in the Methodist Protestant Church. F. Leslie Robinson, of the Theological Seminary, conducted the services at the railroad reading rooms in the afternoon. The services at the other churches were conducted by the resident pastors. Rev. G. W. Coleman delivered three interesting sermons at the Free Methodist Church. The Free Methodists also held an open-air meeting at the intersection of Wilkes and Fairfax streets at sunset.

FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late Benjamin E. Dement took place at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his late residence, 505 south Lee street. A large number of relatives and friends of the deceased attended. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. A. Jeffers, of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, and the interment was made in the Bethel Cemetery. The floral tributes were very handsome. Among them was a piece in the shape of a car which was sent by the employees of the electric railway. Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows, Alexandria Council, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, and Marley Escampment, of which organizations deceased was a member, attended in a body. The pallbearers were Messrs. J. R. Mansfield, G. Nelson Cradick, W. P. Henshaw, W. W. Sherwood, Charles Mumford, and Benjamin Wansley.

SPECIAL SERMON.—The Baptist Church was well filled last evening in consequence of a special sermon preached by its pastor, Dr. G. L. Hunt, to the members of Alexandria Council, No. 33, and other friends. The choir rendered some sweet music during the service which was much enjoyed by all. Dr. Hunt took as his subject "Liberty, Equality and Fraternity," which subject was handled in a manner well pleasing to his hearers. Tomorrow evening Alexandria Council will celebrate its eleventh anniversary by a literary entertainment at the Opera House.

JEWISH SUNDAY SCHOOL.—Previous to the services in the Jewish synagogue last night Mr. Nathan Wolberg announced that the Sunday school under the auspices of the synagogue would resume its sessions next Sunday morning. Mr. R. Weil will be superintendent, Mr. Wolberg assistant, and Miss Jennie Blondheim and others teachers. The children will be taught church history as recounted in the Bible and the rudiments of the Hebrew tongue.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES.—At a meeting of the session of the Second Presbyterian Church on Saturday night Elder K. Kemper was selected to represent the church with the pastor, Rev. Dr. Brooke, at the meeting of the Presbytery of the Chesapeake at Bealeton this week. Elder Kemper was also selected as the representative of the church at the Synod of Virginia which meets October 22 at Lynchburg.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY. Take LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE TABLETS. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Groves' signature is on each box. 25c.

B. W. Parrell, Kintnersville, Pa., says he suffered 25 years with piles and could not get relief until DeWitt's Little Early Balm effected a permanent cure. Counterfeits are worthless. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

CHARGED WITH ROBBERING HIS FATHER.—Among the prisoners in the dock in the Police Court this morning was Henry Washington, colored, who was charged with stealing seventy cents from his father, Charles Washington. Paterfamilias averred that he went to sleep early Saturday night without undressing, that the son came in some time during the night and when the plaintiff awoke yesterday morning he found his pockets had been rifled and that, save a bag of tobacco, he had been cleaned completely out. The son averred that he father often came home drunk and had to be picked up bodily and carried into the house and that he was as likely to have lost the money out of the house as anywhere else. This precipitated a cross-fire between the father and son which was much enjoyed by the spectators. The Mayor after listening to the circumstances and re-examination for awhile dismissed the accused and called the next case, which was that of a colored woman named Delcy Mason, who was charged with creating considerable excitement in the northeastern part of the city last night by disorderly conduct and the free use of vulgar language in the street. She was fined $5 and in default of payment will report for duty at the work house.

Samuel Mason, colored, who was caught in the act of smuggling whiskey to a prisoner in the station house, was fined $5. He failed to pay the assessment and will doubtless appear on the chain gang.

John Henderson, a paperhanger, who had been charged with indecent conduct on the street, forfeited $5 collateral by failing to respond when his case was called.

Frank Shepherd and Wm. Brookes, both colored, charged with assaulting and beating Charles Braxton, also colored, were dismissed, the warrant having been withdrawn.

A cow which was taken up in the street, was returned to the owner upon the payment of $1.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE CITY.—Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.—Ex parte W. H. Smith, sergeant; dismissed. Anchor Salt Co. vs. Chas. King & Son, dismissed; agreed. Jas. O. Bruin was admitted to practice in this court. Eunus Barber, administratrix of C. C. Barber, vs. B. & O. R. R.; removed to U. S. Circuit Court from the Eastern district of Virginia. G. L. Howard vs. Nellie Howard et al.; final decree. G. L. Simpson vs. Zora Hill et al., and G. L. Simpson vs. Board of Police Commissioners; decree entered in vacation confirmed and cases dismissed. G. A. Appich vs. Ellen C. Daingerfield et al.; around rent case; decree appointing H. B. Caton guardian ad litem and ordering complainant to take evidence in support of his allegation. H. B. Caton was admitted to practice in this court.

The docket was called and all the cases against the electric railway were continued till the December term.

In the Corporation Court today in the case of E. A. Gorman vs. Catherine Smith; a decree of reference to Douglas Stuart, commissioner, was entered.

Cora E. McIntosh, guardian, vs. Herbert M. Taylor; decree referring case to L. C. Barley for report. THE R. F. & P. R. R.—As heretofore stated, negotiations have been closed by which the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad Company will take control of the track from Quantico to Alexandria, owned by the Washington Southern Company. After October 1 all trains of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac will run through from Richmond to Alexandria instead of Quantico, as heretofore. This will also apply to trains of the Atlantic Coast Line and the Seaboard Air Line systems, which now run from Richmond to Washington over the tracks of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac and the Pennsylvania roads.

CHARGED WITH ATTEMPTING TO WRECK A TRAIN.—George Weivel, who says that his home is in this city, but whom no one seems to know, was arrested in Frederick, Md., Saturday night upon a charge of attempting to wreck a passenger train on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. On Wednesday last the engineer of the train from Frederick to Washington discovered a cross-tie lying upon the track at Lime Kiln, and stopped his engine before striking it. Weivel was committed to jail to await a hearing next Monday.

SHOT IN A ROW.—William Kennedy, colored, twenty-one years old, of Falls Church, was taken to the Georgetown University Hospital yesterday, suffering from a gunshot wound of the left hip. The injury, which is not of a serious nature, was received at Falls Church Saturday night during an altercation in which several negroes were involved. The matter has been brought to the attention of the Virginia authorities who are investigating the case.

THROWN FROM THE TRACK.—While cars were being shifted at Calverton yesterday three empty passenger coaches were thrown from the track and overturned. Fortunately no one was hurt. A wrecking train was sent from this city in the afternoon and the derailed cars were soon replaced on the track.

FREE METHODIST CONFERENCE.—The Free Methodist conference which had been in session in the old Presbyterian church, on south Fairfax street, since Wednesday last concluded its sessions yesterday afternoon with religious exercises. As was stated in the Gazette Saturday, Rev. John Cavanaugh was reappointed to the church in this city. The following standing committees for the year were appointed: Education, J. Gray, A. G. Miller and G. E. Baker; Sabbath observance, J. F. Cameron, D. J. Santmyer, M. B. Myer and A. W. Myer; secret societies, J. J. Miller, J. Gray and G. E. Baker; prohibition, D. J. Santmyer, A. W. Myer and O. V. Kelsie; publication, J. T. Logan, C. M. Sanford and J. Gray; state of the work, G. E. Baker, J. T. Logan and G. E. Baker; public worship, G. W. Coleman, G. E. Baker, J. T. Logan and J. Gray; public minutes, the secretaries; collection fund, W. B. Bertel; records, D. J. Santmyer and J. Gray. The following trustees were elected for three years: R. P. Johnson and G. E. Baker.

A valuable horse belonging to Mr. C. C. Catlin was found to be suffering from lock jaw this morning and had to be killed.

PERSONAL.—Rev. Mr. Register, of this city, occupied a seat on the stage of the Grand Opera House in Washington yesterday evening during the memorial services held there.

Dr. Stewart Jamieson, of Trenton, N. J., spent yesterday with his father, Mr. G. W. Jamieson, in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Justus Schneider have returned from an extended tour through the northern states and Canada.

Mr. Wm. E. Allen is quite ill at his home on north Henry street with typhoid fever. Mrs. A. P. Dodge has returned from Europe, where she spent the summer. Miss Fanny Dixon, of Washington street, is entertaining Miss Lucy Howard, of Baltimore.

A JUST CAUSE OF COMPLAINT.—Considerable complaint is made by people living in the neighborhood of the long-continued practice on the part of some of dumping trash and refuse generally near the east end of the Wilkes street tunnel. That locality is kept in an unsightly condition all the year round by heaps of paper, cuttings from trees, tin cans and often decaying matter which is offensive.

RIVER NOTES.—The schooner Enid is being loaded with fertilizer by the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company for Norfolk. The schooner Daniel is being loaded with lumber by Smoot & Co. for Riverside Park.

The Norfolk steamer which arrived here this morning reported a number of oyster vessels in the river on their way up.

COUNTY COURT.—Judge C. E. Nicol presiding. The grand jury term of the Alexandria County Court convened today.

The jury was sworn but had not reported at 4 o'clock today. Commonwealth vs. Carroll Darley, charged with depositing garbage in the county; appeal from a magistrate decision; jury and case in progress.

PROPERTY SALES.—J. A. Moir has sold to W. K. Harlow a house and lot on the southeast corner of Columbus and Princess streets.

J. E. Lyles has sold to T. E. Radcliff a house and lot on the south side of Wilkes street, between Royal and Pitt, for $650.

WILL PROBATED.—The will of the late J. W. Graham was admitted to probate today, and Mr. F. J. Pollard was appointed administrator. The deceased left his property to his grandchildren—John, Edward, Mary and Dora Graham and Eugene and Eunice DeSilva.

U. D. C.—At a meeting of the Fourteenth Virginia Regiment Chapter, U. D. C., this morning committees were appointed and arrangements made for the U. D. C. Convention to be held here on the 9th, 10th and 11th of October. An invitation from B. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, to attend a reception to be given by them to the Daughters of the Confederacy on the 10th of October was read and appreciation thereof expressed. Other business of importance to be brought before the convention was discussed.

LOCAL BREVITIES.
The Woman's Auxiliary will meet tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock at Lee Camp Hall. Six lodgers were at the station house Saturday night. Two were accommodated last night.

New and large supply pipes are being laid by the Alexandria Water Company from their pump house to their reservoir.
